

There are undoubtedly other social and cultural facilities that are either needed or desired in Star. As in the larger communities, however, municipal officials often justifiably will not likely seek to promote such facilities until sufficient interest in a particular facility is demonstrated by the general public.